

Albert Veksler

Education

- 2012 – PhD candidate in the Public Policy, Dublin Institute of Technology
- 2007 – 2011 MA, Honors Course in the Public Policy and Government, Federman School of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem
- 2004 – 2008 BA, in Political Science and International Relations, Hebrew University of Jerusalem
- 1985 – 1987 M.Arch, Architecture, State Art Institute of Estonia (not completed)

Experience

- 2014 – Deputy Director of the NGO Global Aliya
- 2008 – Founder and CEO of Wexler Consultations.
Selected to manage multiple projects in team development and training, NGO structuring and coalition building. Clients include: Members of the Knesset, Israel's Pensioners Party, Databanks International (2012 - present)
- 2012 – 2014 CEO and co-founder of Israel Empowerment Lobby
- 2004 – 2012 Coaching & training leadership teams for the NGO Mivtza Jabotinsky
- 1994 – 2003 Founder & CEO of ES Publishing House.
Published the first text book about the Holocaust in cooperation with the Ministry Education of Estonia and the U.S. Embassy
- 1994 – 2003 Founder and the CEO of Friends of Israel in Estonia.
In collaboration with the Israeli Embassy and local politicians from the Baltic States, organised PR events to introduce Israeli culture to the Baltic audiences.

Language skills:

Hebrew (fluent),
English (mother tongue level),
Estonian (mother tongue),
Russian (fluent),
Swedish (basic),
Finnish (poor)